

Press Release: Hailsham & District Twinning Association Open Evening: Tuesday 17th June

A special open evening will be held at the Hailsham Town Council Offices, Inglenook, Market Street, Hailsham, on Tuesday 17th June 2008, to discuss the expansion of additional links with Gournay-en-Bray, the French town Hailsham is currently twinned with.

At this public consultation, the Twinning Association will discuss the mutual benefits provided by the development of cultural exchanges in sport, the arts, history and language for the two towns. The public meeting will be chaired by Paul Simmons, Chairman of the Hailsham & District Twinning Association.

The meeting will be open to both existing Association members, potential new members and the general public to attend, will be an informal affair and include the provision of refreshments. Please feel free to come along and help us plan the future of the Association: all you need is the desire to try something a little bit different!

The meeting will run from 7.30pm to 10.00pm. For further information, please contact Paul Simmons on 01323 845006 or Terry Hall on 01323 841702.
